

Vaccine Preventable Diseases

National Immunization Program of Sri Lanka provides protection against following Vaccine Preventable Diseases.

- Tuberculosis
- Diphtheria
- Pertusis
- Tetanus
- Haemophilus influenza type B
- Hepatitis B
- Poliomyelitis
- Measles
- Mumps
- Rubella
- Japanese Encephalitis
- Human Papilloma Virus

Objectives of the National Immunization Programme

- Eradication of poliomyelitis
- Elimination of neonatal tetanus, diphtheria, measles and rubella
- Reduction of morbidity and mortality due to whooping cough prevention of outbreaks
- Reduction of morbidity and mortality due to hepatitis B
- Reduction of morbidity and mortality due to Japanese Encephalitis
- Reduction of morbidity and mortality due to Haemophilias influenza B disease